Bangalore Swarajya Party - Leaders' Joint Manifesto.

(from .....correspondent).

Bangalore City, November 14. Speaking on Thursday evening to a large and appreciative gathering in Bangalore on "Belgaum Congress" Mr. J. Bheema Rao, Secretary of the Swarajya Party observed that the leaders' manifesto issued over the joint signatures of Mahatma Gandhi, Pandit Motilal Nehru and Deshabandhu C.R.Das was most opportune and was so spirited that it drove all doubts from hesitating friends. The manifesto had infused confidence and given strength for several thousands, who would hereafter sink their differences and work whole-heartedly in pursuit of the common goal, namely Swarajya for India (Hear, hear).

Congress collections.

He was also hopeful about Congress collections considering what his Swarajya friends was doing for Belgaum Congress. His esteemed friend Mr. Hosakoppa Krishna Rao, M.L.A. collected Rs.3,000/- in Shimoga town for Congress work and reached Thirthahalli on the 11th instant where it is hoped he would surely secure an equal amount.
